Only in MY DRIFT articles could you find an article about Mormon Temples followed by an article about Jennifer Lopez. I told you that I write about everything. I have always thought that J. Lo is very beautiful with a great body. She has been able to maintain her looks and figure over the years. She is 46 years old. We all know that Jennifer Lopez is a good singer and dancer but I also think she is a pretty good actress. I was watching TV the other night and noticed that there was a movie on starring Jennifer Lopez titled “Enough” – I decided to watch it. Here is the plot: Working-class waitress Slim (Jennifer Lopez) thought she was entering a life of domestic bliss when she married Mitch (Billy Campbell), the man of her dreams. After the arrival of their first child, her picture perfect life is shattered when she discovers Mitch's hidden possessive dark side, a controlling and abusive alter ego that can turn trust, love and tranquility into terror. Terrified for her child's safety, Slim flees with her daughter. Relentless in his pursuit and enlisting the aid of lethal henchmen, Mitch continually stalks the prey that was once his family. He lets her know that he is going to kill her. Finally, Slim is forced to fight back – she realizes that the only way to be able to live a normal life and keep her daughter is to kill Mitch. She finds someone (a big black dude) to train her to fight to kill. She then sneaks into Mitch’s house and hides all of his guns and knives. When he comes home, she engages him in a physical and psychological battle, showing him that she's had ENOUGH! Mitch dies when he tries to hit her and she ducks and he flies over the banister and lands on the glass table below. I enjoyed it!

More J. Lo Fun Facts and Information

Jennifer's parents, Guadalupe Rodriguez and David Lopez, were both born in Ponce, Puerto Rico, the second largest Puerto Rican city. Her father is a computer specialist and her mother is a kindergarten teacher. However, Jennifer is not very good with the Spanish language and has a hard time speaking Spanish though it is her mother tongue.

A young Jennifer

High School Picture

At age five, Jennifer began taking singing and dancing lessons.

Jennifer was also an athlete in high school participating in track and field and tennis.

Lopez spent her entire academic career in Catholic schools, finishing at Preston High School in New York City.

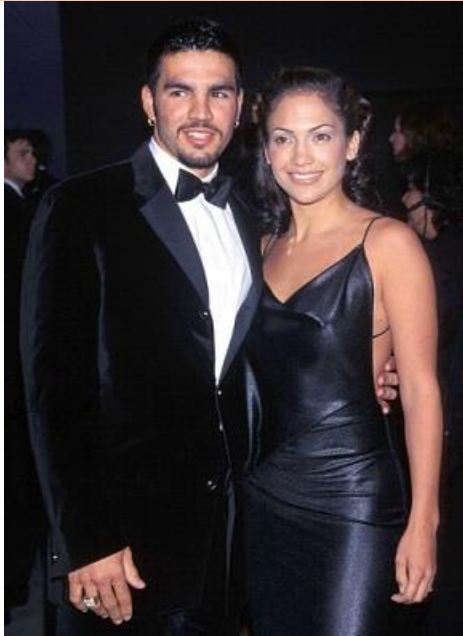

Jennifer Lopez in movie Selena

Lopez's first headlining movie role was as Selena Quintanilla-Pérez in 1997's "Selena."

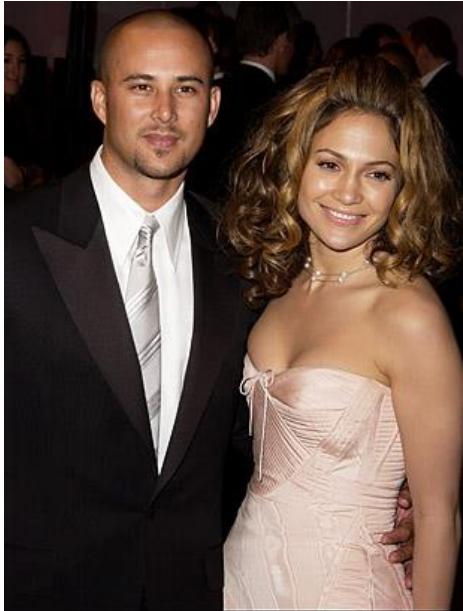

An estimated 22,000 actresses were screened for the role of Selena Quintanilla. Eventually, Jennifer Lopez was selected, with 9-year-old Becky Lee Meza playing her as a child.

Lopez was paid $1 Million dollar for her role in this movie.

To prepare for the role, Lopez actually moved in with the Suzette Quintanilla family in Corpus Christi, Texas.

Ojani Noa and Jennifer Lopez

Cris Judd and Jennifer Lopez

Lopez met her first husband, Cuban waiter Ojani Noa, while filming "Blood and Wine." She was 23 at the time. The marriage lasted 13 months.

She met Husband #2, Cris Judd, while filming the video for "Love Don't Cost a Thing": He was a dancer. She was linked to him even while still dating P. Diddy Combs. They were divorced after 9 months of marriage.

Lopez is one of the highest paid actresses in Hollywood and is the highest paid actor of Latin descent, making up to US $15 million per film role. In addition, she is also the richest actress in Hollywood, with an estimated net worth of $300 million (2015). She made her acting debut at age 16 with a small role in the 1986 film "My Little Girl".

While working on her debut album, “On the 6”, Lopez met and began dating musician Sean ‘P. Diddy’ Combs. In 1999, they were both arrested as a result of a nightclub shooting when police found them with a stolen gun. The charges against Lopez were dropped, but the charges against Combs stayed. He was later found Not Guilty by a New York City jury.

Will the original “Bennifer” be making a comeback? If Ben Affleck has his way, then yes! In the middle of his divorce from Jennifer Garner, Ben is apparently trying to reconnect with a different Jen — Jennifer Lopez! Flashback to 2002! Ben Affleck, 43, and Jennifer Lopez, 46, were one of the hottest couples in the early 2000s – They were engaged to be married before the BIG breakup!

Jennifer Lopez has always laughed off the rumors that her derriere is insured for $1 billion, but there's no doubt about her assets. Her first starring role in 1997's Selena showcased her talents as an actress and singer – but it was those tight costumes and the curves they revealed that made her a sex symbol.

She launched her clothing line called JLO by Jennifer Lopez in 2001.

Lopez earned $15 million for her role in 2005's Monster-in-Law, making her the highest paid Latina actress in Hollywood at the time.

“Anaconda” is a 1997 adventure-horror film, directed by the Peruvian Luis Llosa, starring Jennifer Lopez, Ice Cube, Jon Voight, and Eric Stoltz. It centers on a documentary film crew who have been taken hostage by a snake hunter who is going after the legendary giant anaconda, which is discovered in the Amazon rainforest. Despite receiving mostly negative reviews from critics, the film was a box-office hit (It made $135 Million) and was followed by a series of sequels.

Jennifer Lopez and Marc Anthony

Jennifer Lopez, who is not discussing her current relationships, seems to be having no problem with sharing details about her past relationships. During a recent interview with People Magazine, the 46-year-old singer revealed a lot about her failed marriage to salsa superstar, Marc Anthony.

“It was devastating and awful,” she said about filing for divorce. “I think both Marc and I thought at the time we would be together forever.” Even though the breakup was “the biggest disappointment” of her life, she admitted “it was the right thing” to do.

In 2011 following the departure of Ellen DeGeneres from American Idol, it was officially announced in September that Lopez would be joining the tenth season of American Idol. MTV stated that the deal was "mutually beneficial to all those involved", while CNN reported that Lopez was viewing it as a decision to revive her career, while American Idol producers believed that Lopez would strengthen viewing figures. In October, Lopez released her fourteenth fragrance, Love and Glamour. The perfume was inspired by Lopez's forthcoming "return to the spotlight".

Lopez joins the judges on American Idol

Jennifer Lopez is immensely popular among her fans and with magazines as well. People magazine rated her as the "World's Most Beautiful Women" in its April 2011 edition. Apart from that, Jennifer Lopez is the only woman who has topped the For Him Magazine's (FHM) list of the 100 Sexiest Females in the world not once but thrice. She made it on top of the FHM list for 3 consecutive years. No other female has ever been able to do that to date.

It comes as quite a surprise that a woman, whose love life has been a terrible one, with three divorces and a broken engagement, is a fan of books based on relationships. She loves to buy and read books, which are all about relationships. Maybe she is still trying to find the answers to her failed love life in such books.

Jennifer Lopez named her first studio album “On the 6”. The title had a special meaning to it. As a college student, Jennifer used to travel on the NY 6 train for her dance auditions. Thus, she named the album “On the 6”.

Back in the days when Jennifer Lopez was unknown to all, she appeared in a music video for Janet Jackson. The song was titled “That’s the Way Love Goes.” Jennifer Lopez was seen dancing in the music video. She has also been one of the backup dancers for Janet Jackson.

Jennifer Lopez does not drink, smoke, or do drugs!!

Hollywood celebrities are famous for their dependency on alcohol and drugs. However, Jennifer Lopez is one of the Hollywood celebrities who does not drink or smoke. She should certainly be a role model for all those celebrities who are used to checking into rehab like Lindsay Lohan.

Jennifer Lopez is the biological mother of twins Emme Maribel Muniz and Maximillian David Muniz. Singer Marc Anthony, Jennifer’s third husband, is the father of the twins. His real last name is Muniz.

Celebrities these days do cash in a lot of money by giving magazines the right to publish the images of their newborn babies. Jennifer Lopez was no different when it comes to this. JLo’s twins made it to the cover of People Magazine in its March 2008 issue when they were a month old. Jennifer Lopez got $6 million from People magazine in exchange for her twins’ photos.

Jennifer Lopez is said to have a friendly relationship with the famous Hollywood actor Tom Cruise and his now ex-wife Katie Holmes. Jennifer Lopez and her husband Marc Anthony were also on the guest list for Tom and Katie's wedding.

"La Guitarra" is a nickname given to Jennifer Lopez. Do you know the reason behind it? Well it is due to her body. Her body is curved just like a guitar, which makes this nickname perfect for her.

Celebrities are paid a lot for making appearances at various events around the globe. Jennifer Lopez was once paid $1 million just to attend a Ukrainian wedding.

Lopez in movie "The Wedding Planner"

The Wedding Planner is a 2001 romantic comedy film directed by Adam Shankman, and starring Jennifer Lopez and Matthew McConaughey. It is thought by critics to be her best acting role.

Jennifer Lopez holds a record of her own. She is the only person in the history of the industry who has managed to take her music album and movie to the top all at the same time. Her second studio album, JLo, and her movie The Wedding Planner peaked on the charts and box office respectively.

It is amazing how strange rumors regarding famous celebrities float all around. Jennifer Lopez is one such celebrity. It was rumored and believed for a long time that she loves the color white and wants and demands everything white around her, like white decors, white flowers, white curtains, etc. However, Jennifer Lopez later on denied this as a foolish rumor.

What did Jennifer Lopez do with the money she was paid for doing the movie "Selena"? She went and bought her mother a brand new Cadillac.

Well, anybody that buys their mother a Cadillac is okay in my Book!!

J. Lo's New House

Inside View

Outside View

Yes, Jenny from the Block has a new block on the Westside of LA to call home. Singer-actress Jennifer Lopez, who has previously made her home in gated Hidden Hills, has paid $28 million for the Bel-Air estate previously owned by actress Sela Ward.

The eight-acre estate centers on a 14,000-square-foot main house that was originally designed by architect Samuel Marx and built in 1940. Two guest cottages, a 100-seat outdoor amphitheater and an infinity-edge swimming pool also lie within the grounds. The home boasts such amenities as a 30-seat home theater, a skylight-topped and stone-walled kitchen, a dedicated massage room and a pub. One guest house has been used as an art studio, and the other features a screened porch and rose garden.

In all, there are seven bedrooms, 13 bathrooms and 10 carved wood or stone fireplaces. Outdoors, the park-like grounds feature a series of waterfalls that feed into koi ponds, a man-made swimming pond with a beach entry, a miniature golf course and a stone cabana. Stone terraces and verandas lead to acres of walking paths and trails.

We all know that Jennifer Lopez is known for those outrageous sexy outfits she wears at award shows and while performing on stage. My last picture of Jennifer Lopez was taken during her “Dance Again World Tour” in 2012.

She still looks pretty good for a 40+ year old entertainer. Maybe it pays to not drink, smoke, or do drugs. I hope you learned something new about Jennifer Lopez.
