Article Number: (506-2025-21)

The book of Jude consists of a single chapter, Jude 1, which contains 25 verses in total. The author, Jude, a brother of James and a servant of Jesus Christ, writes an urgent letter to warn believers about false teachers who had infiltrated the church and to encourage them to contend for the true faith.

The 25 Verses

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, to those who have been called, who are loved in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ:

2 Mercy, peace and love be yours in abundance.

The Sin and Doom of Ungodly People

3 Dear friends, although I was very eager to write to you about the salvation we share, I felt compelled to write and urge you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to God's holy people.

4 For certain individuals whose condemnation was written about long ago have secretly slipped in among you. They are ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into a license for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord.

5 Though you already know all this, I want to remind you that the Lord at one time delivered his people out of Egypt, but later destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And the angels who did not keep their positions of authority but abandoned their proper dwelling—these he has kept in darkness, bound with everlasting chains for judgment on the great Day.

7 In a similar way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire.

8 In the very same way, on the strength of their dreams these ungodly people pollute their own bodies, reject authority and heap abuse on celestial beings.

9 But even the archangel Michael, when he was disputing with the devil about the body of Moses, did not himself dare to condemn him for slander but said, “The Lord rebuke you!”

10 Yet these people slander whatever they do not understand, and the very things they do understand by instinct—as irrational animals do—will destroy them.

11 Woe to them! They have taken the way of Cain; they have rushed for profit into Balaam’s error; they have been destroyed in Korah’s rebellion.

12 These people are blemishes at your love feasts, eating with you without the slightest qualm—shepherds who feed only themselves. They are clouds without rain, blown along by the wind; autumn trees, without fruit and uprooted—twice dead.

13 They are wild waves of the sea, foaming up their shame; wandering stars, for whom blackest darkness has been reserved forever.

14 Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied about them: “See, the Lord is coming with thousands upon thousands of his holy ones

15 to judge everyone, and to convict all of them of all the ungodly acts they have committed in their ungodliness, and of all the defiant words ungodly sinners have spoken against him.”

16 These people are grumblers and faultfinders; they follow their own evil desires; they boast about themselves and flatter others for their own advantage.

A Call to Persevere

17 But, dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ foretold.

18 They said to you, “In the last times there will be scoffers who will follow their own ungodly desires.”

19 These are the people who divide you, who follow mere natural instincts and do not have the Spirit.

20 But you, dear friends, by building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit,

21 keep yourselves in God’s love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life.

22 Be merciful to those who doubt;

23 save others by snatching them from the fire; to others show mercy, mixed with fear—hating even the clothing stained by corrupted flesh.

Doxology (Praise to God)

24 To him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you before his glorious presence without fault and with great joy—

25 to the only God our Savior be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and forevermore! Amen

The Book of Jude Summary

The Book of Jude is a short New Testament letter urging believers to contend for the faith against false teachers who have infiltrated the church. Jude warns of the danger these ungodly intruders pose by denying Christ's lordship and living immoral lives. He provides Old Testament examples of God's judgment on rebels and encourages his readers to stay strong in their faith, build themselves up in love, and persevere to the end, all while trusting in God's ability to keep them from stumbling.

Key Themes in the Book of Jude

False Teachers and Immorality:

Jude confronts individuals within the church who distort Christian teachings, deny Jesus' lordship, and live according to their sinful desires.

Divine Judgment:

He uses illustrations from the Old Testament, such as the Israelites who were punished for their rebellion and the angels who sinned, to show God's severe judgment on the unfaithful and the rebellious.

Contending for the Faith:

The core message of the book is a call to "contend for the faith," meaning to fight and labor to preserve true Christian teaching and morals against those who seek to corrupt them.

Perseverance and Vigilance:

Believers are encouraged to remain vigilant and steadfast in their faith, not becoming complacent or growing weary.

God's Grace:

The letter emphasizes that God's grace demands a whole-life response that includes moral living and a commitment to truth.

The Author and Audience

Author:

The letter was written by Jude, identified as a servant of Jesus Christ.

Audience:

It was addressed to a general Christian audience, not a specific church or city, and serves as a warning to all followers of Jesus.

The Call to Action

Stay in God's Love:

Believers are urged to keep themselves in God's love.

Pray in the Holy Spirit:

They should build themselves up and pray in the Holy Spirit.

Show Mercy:

Some who have gone astray should be saved with compassion, while others need a strong warning against their sins.

Look for Jesus' Mercy:

Jude encourages them to look forward to Jesus' mercy and be prepared for his return.

Trust in God's Power:

The letter concludes with a powerful affirmation that God is able to keep believers from stumbling and present them faultless before his glory.
