

PATSY AND DERRAH PICTURES

BEFORE MARRIAGE

I moved to Hawaii in June 1970 and stayed in Waikiki for the first three months. After that, I found an 8th floor one bedroom apartment on Beretania Street across the street from the Central Union Church. I found a nice “local” bar on King Street about four blocks from my apartment building that was called the Lauhala Room and yes, it had a pool table. This is where I met my future wife Patsy – she was the bartender.

Patsy Playing Pool at the Lauhala Room

Lunch at Haiku Gardens when my mother was visiting

Patsy with Tracy and Toni

Patsy was renting a house on Harding Ave. in Kaimuki
(She had three pets at this house – 2 dogs and a cat)

Tofu

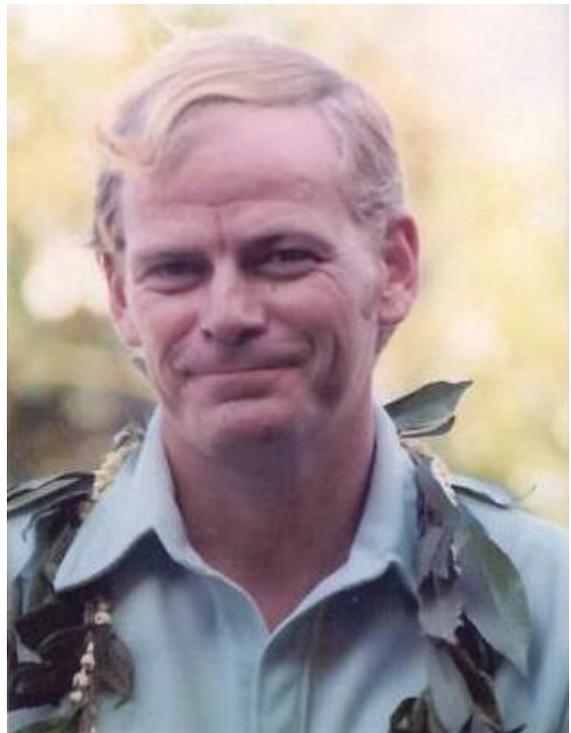

Yuki

BJ

WEDDING

OUR HOUSE IN MILILANI

The first piece of furniture Patsy purchased for the house

Patsy loved Giant Orchids and English Roses

Our son Mike built a Planter so Patsy could Grow Vegetables

Patsy also loved Dogs, Cats, and Birds

Patsy with our first Rottweiler Kudo

Monty – The dog Patsy was most attached to

Patti Girl

Patsy with Puppy Apache

Birds

Billy Boy

Sweetie Pie

Cats

BJ, the cat we had while living in Kaimuki disappeared one day and we never saw him again. When we moved to Mililani, we got a female Siamese cat we called Tinker (I can't find a picture). Well, as with most cats, Tinker had the run of the neighborhood. We later had Tinker "fixed" so she could not have any kittens, and she lived a long life (She died at about 18 years old).

PATSY AND FAMILY IN UTAH

Patsy and Derrah Talking to Big Red (One of our horses)

Patsy and my brother Scott Shooting Guns out West of Utah Lake

Flaming Gorge Reservoir (Located on the Utah – Wyoming border)

On our way to Price, Utah where my dad's family came from

Family Picnic up American Fork Canyon

LAST PICTURE OF PATSY

Last picture of my wife Patsy with Mike and Apache (She died a few days later)

DERRAH

Derrah with baby Nick

Derrah with baby Kayla

With Grandma Petersen on her 90th Birthday

Derrah Yashiki
"In Loving Memory"
(May 8, 1959 - April 21, 2013)